

Our founding fathers, and yes, mothers, struggled under the yoke of anarchistic puzzles in a socialistic magazine, attempting to solve satanic cryptic clues in a self-proclaimed café, in the heart of godless Berkeley.

Then, fourteen half-years ago, they reclaimed the Equinox, this pagan witches' holiday, and started our Party.

The ABC River Cluists present...

The Fifteenth Semi-Annual Equinox
Word Games Party

Family Values!

Nuclear Family

Come as the Republican Dream (three-piece suit? radiation shield?
billionaire? red, white, and blue?)

Unclear Family

Come as the Republican Nightmare (hippie? gay? lesbian? cross-dresser?
single parent? Berkeleyan? yourself?)

The party will be held on Saturday, September 19,

Informal gaming, chatting, and munching start at 6:00pm.
Formal games begin at 7:30pm sharp.

Bring sharpened pencils, word-loving friends, and thematic munchies.
