

Target

YOUR TARGET IS TARGET. HA HA. I BELIEVE THIS IS WHAT EARTHLINGS CALL A HUMOROUS PLAY ON WORDS.
IT SEEMS WE HAVE MUCH TO LEARN.

1. Write the answers to the clues to the right in the numbered spaces in the target. The twelve answers will all have something in common.
2. Leave the first letter, the last letter, and the thing they have in common, and cross out the rest.
3. Apply what you have left, as instructions, to the words in the second ring. Write the resulting words in the third ring.
4. Apply a certain transformation to each of the words in the third ring, and write the resulting words in the innermost ring.
5. Write the first letters of these words in the bull's-eye.

- 1 City you grew up in (8)
- 2 Benedict Arnold, e.g. (7)
- 3 Dangerous subsurface current (8)
- 4 Variant form of an element (7)
- 5 Perfect society (6)
- 6 Protective of one's turf (11)
- 7 Surface for eating or playing cards (8)
- 8 Famous for the wrong reasons (9)
- 9 Shot with a Canon (12)
- 10 For a prime, one or itself (6)
- 11 Nimble Jurassic Park dino (12)
- 12 Pervert the natural shape of (7)

STATE YOUR NAME: SOTLEST BABEPOUS
STATE YOUR LOCATION: _____