

ELVIS WORDS

1. The longest word you can think of beginning with E
2. A word with no vowels except E & I
3. The shortest word that also has the letter X
4. The longest word you can think of beginning with V
5. A 13-letter word that doesn't end in -ive, -ively, or -iveness
6. The longest word you can think of beginning with L that has no repeats of the letters in ELVIS
7. The shortest word that also has the letter K
8. The word closest to the end of the alphabet
9. The longest word you can think of beginning with L
10. A word with all five vowels
11. The longest word you can think of beginning with I
12. A geographical place name not ending in -VILLE. The place name may include hyphenations. Your answer may be more than one word if the place name itself is more than one word, but may not include more than the location itself, like a state or country name. To use made-up examples: OVERLAND HILLS would be ok but OVERLAND HILL, MISSISSIPPI would not
13. The longest word you can think of beginning with V that has no repeats of the letters in ELVIS
14. The shortest word that also has the letter Z
15. A word that doesn't contain any of the following sets of letters: EL, LV, VI, or IS.
16. The longest word you can think of beginning with S that has no repeats of the letters in ELVIS
17. The shortest word that also has the letter Q
18. The longest word you can think of beginning with I that has no repeats of the letters in ELVIS
19. A person (real, not fictional) whose name doesn't include the name ELVIS. May include first, last and middle names. May include hyphenations if the person's name has them.
20. A word of at least 10 letters that has none of the letters in MADONNA.

21. The word closest to the beginning of the alphabet
22. A word that contains at least two of the following sets of letters: EL, LV, VI, IS. You may not use PELVIS or PELVISES or ELVISH.
23. The longest word you can think of beginning with S
24. The longest word you can think of